

10 Resources in Westchester County

Here are 10 resources in Westchester County, New York, where parents can get help to support them in managing the problems they are having with their school-age children:

- 1. Family Ties of Westchester: Provides peer support, advocacy services, parent skills coaching, and workshops.
- 2. Family Services of Westchester: Offers counseling, support groups, and various programs for families.
- 3. The Guidance Center of Westchester: Provides mental health services, including counseling for children and families.
- 4. Children's Village: Offers a range of services, including behavioral health support and family counseling.
- 5. Don Bosco Community Center: Provides educational and recreational programs for children and families.
- 6. Families Together in New York State: Advocates for families and provides support services.
- 7. Feeding Westchester: Offers food assistance programs and nutrition education for families.
- 8. Human Development Services of Westchester: Provides developmental and behavioral health services for children and families.
- 9. Legal Services of the Hudson Valley: Offers legal assistance to families in need.
- 10. Westchester Jewish Community Services: Provides a variety of support services, including counseling and family programs.

These organizations can provide valuable support and resources to help parents navigate challenges and ensure the well-being of their children. Would you like more information on any of these resources?